Why Is It Important to Register With the Parish ?

At various times in a Catholic's life, it is beneficial that you be able to show that you are a "practicing Catholic."

This is possible by confirming your parish registry.

Here are some of the situations to which this may apply:

Marriage in the Church

Baptism of a Child

School Registration of a Child

Becoming a Godparent or Sponsor

We urge you to:

Register at the Rectory

Inquire about using your talents for the good of the parish

Use your Sunday envelopes so that your generosity can be recorded.

Msgr. Terry

TODAY'S READINGS

Gospel at the Procession with Palms -- Jesus entry into Jerusalem (Luke 19:28-40).

First Reading -- In spite of my sufferings I am not disgraced. I am not put to shame (Isaiah 50:4-7).

Psalm -- My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Psalm 22).

Second Reading -- Christ emptied himself, and God filled this emptiness with exaltation (Philippians 2:6-11).

Gospel -- The account of Christ's passion according to Luke (Luke 22:14 -- 23:56 [23:1-49])

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

From the proclamation of the Gospel at the beginning of the liturgy, we know that today is different, not only because we hear two Gospel passages, or because we hold palms and process. Today begins Holy Week, a time set apart, a week in which to listen, pray, reflect, and take to heart the truth of Christ's passion, crucifixion, death, and ultimately, resurrection. It takes a week, and a lifetime, to truly hear the message of Christ's love. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus willingly sacrificed himself, so we must hear the story again and again. Let this week be for us a new moment of faith in which we, together with the criminal who was crucified with Christ, cry out, Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

JESUS ANNOUNCES GOD'S KINGDOM OF LOVE

Jesus had walked, healed, forgiven sins, performed miracles, and eaten with the people. His message was simple yet profound: in Christ, the kingdom of God is at hand. Jesus announced God's kingdom of love, teaching all who would listen. In God's kingdom, the greatest is as the youngest; the leader is the servant. Those who follow Jesus are called to wash feet, attend to the last and the least, show mercy to the sinner, and love enemies. Even in the hour of his passion, Jesus did not turn away from his mission of love. He healed the ear of one who had come to arrest him, did not lash out at Pilate or Herod, consoled the women who wept, and forgave those who crucified him. He heard the cry of the criminal who called out to him from the cross, and promised him a place in Paradise. Jesus shows us that God's way is the way of love at all costs, even when it means giving more than we think appropriate or possible.

WE SHARE CHRIST'S MISSION

Let us not be mistaken. Jesus' mercy and forgiveness led him to the cross, and we who follow him will surely experience trial and be misunderstood in our determination to live as disciples. We will be called to make difficult decisions about the way we live our lives, serve others, give of our time and money, show patience, and favor those who are poor and vulnerable. Friends may turn away, family members may question our commitment to Christ above all else. Jesus remained singularly focused on God's will. And so must we. Jesus gave without counting the cost, and so must we. In Christ, we also have a mission of love. We, too, are called to stay focused on God's will. In this, we will announce God's kingdom and be assured of our place in it when Christ returns in glory. In this Holy Week, let us reflect deeply on the mystery of God's love for us in Christ and renew our commitment to live as Christian disciples in the world.

What is it within me that needs the healing touch of God?

God doesn't always heal us in the way we want, and it may seem that no one understands the issues we deal with or the difficulties we go through. But the Lord does not abandon us in our suffering, struggles, illness or brokenness. Rather, he has chosen to remain with us in the midst of those sufferings, and he offers us the very life of God's kingdom to bring us freedom and healing.

Sometimes, he will transform our hearts, and this can change our whole experience of suffering. Healing is essential to Jesus' mission. In the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly: (10:10). He wants to free you from your fears, addictions, anxieties, shame, unforgiveness — anything that holds you back from fully serving Him and enjoying the abundant life that He offers you. Jesus has given his life for you. Do you truly want to be well?
